SAMUEL GOLDWYN FILMS ACQUIRES WORLDWIDE RIGHTS TO SUNDANCE FILM 'A BOY. A GIRL. A DREAM' STARRING OMARI HARDWICK & MEAGAN GOOD

Los Angeles, CA (April 5, 2018) – Samuel Goldwyn Films announced today that the company has acquired world-wide rights to the acclaimed Sundance Film A BOY. A GIRL. A DREAM directed by Qasim Basir and written by Qasim Basir & Samantha Tanner. The film stars Omari Hardwick ("Power"), Meagan Good (A GIRL LIKE GRACE), and co-stars Jay Ellis ("Insecure"), Dijon Talton ("Glee"), Wesley Jonathan (ROLL BOUNCE), and Affion Crockett (THE WEDDING RINGER).

The story follows a Los Angeles club promoter named Cass (Hardwick), who on the night of the 2016 Presidential Election meets a woman named Free (Good) who challenges him to revisit his broken dreams. This happens during a series of unfortunate events during the time that Trump is surging ahead of Hilary Clinton.

"We're thrilled to be working with such remarkable talent such as Omari Hardwick and Meagan Good, whose relationship over the course of this one night is a powerful yet understated emotional journey," says Meg Longo, Sr. Director of Sales and Marketing at Samuel Goldwyn Films.

"I can't think of a better company to partner with for this next phase of the journey of getting our film out to the world," says director/writer Qasim Basir.

"Samuel Goldwyn has a solid track record. They were extremely passionate about our film and the talented people involved with making it so we believe we are in good hands," added producer Datari Turner.

A BOY. A GIRL. A DREAM was produced by Datari Turner through his Production Banner Datari Turner Productions. Executive producers on the film are Jash'd Belcher, Louis Steyn, TJ Steyn, Jamal Chilton, Tim Weatherspoon, Phil Thornton, Meagan Good, and Omari Hardwick.

The deal was negotiated by Meg Longo, on behalf of Samuel Goldwyn Films.

CAA, Producer Datari Turner, and Attorney Linda Lichter of Lichter, Grossman, Nichols, Adler & Feldman, Inc, negotiated on behalf of the filmmakers.
